Alexandria Club Appeals to Fisheries Bureau for Special Warden.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Aug. 26. The Alexandria Rod and Gun Club has discovered that boys have been placing lime in bottles and throwing them into Cameron run, killing many of the 20,000 rainbow trout which recently were placed in that run by the Virginia Bureau of Fisheries. The Rod and Gun Club will at once ask the Bureau of Fisheries to have a game warden assigned to watch the stream.

D. R. Stansbury, past grand master of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, was last Friday evening presented with a jewel by the members of that lodge. The presentation address was made by the Rev. John Lee Allison, grandmaster of the Odd Fellows of Virginia.

Boy Hurt By Autoist Fleeing From Police

Policeman Leech of the Eighth Precinct late yesterday afternoon recovered an automobile stolen from Lawrence Furr, of 500 U street northwest, at the cost of injuries to Alphonso Griffith, colored, eighteen years old, of 30 P street northeast.

Furr reported the car stolen at 4 o'clock, and Leech caught sight of it at Seventh street and Florida avenue shortly after five. A negro was at the steering wheel. Leech went in pursuit on his trusty bicycle. The circuitous chase ended near Fourth and W streets northwest, where the fleeing automobile knocked down Griffith, who was riding a bicycle. The driver then stopped the car and escaped. In the machine was two gallons of whiskey, which was not in the car when Furr reported the theft. Police confiscated the Griffith was taken to Freedman's Hospital, where it was found his wrist was broken and he was badly bruised. He will recover.
